Said Stoick. "ONE!" said Hiccup and Astrid said at once. "Yeah, but this one is tough to handle even when we try use ten dragons to fight it just make them go down "Said Stoick. Chapter 2 / the Questions

"What the Dragon's Eye?" said Hiccup and Terra. Astrid gasped. "You haven't heard of the Dragon's Eye?" Said Astrid. "Now Astrid, he didn't know cause he was knock out when we was battle the Red Death." Said Stoick. "Ohâ€¦ yeah I kinda of forgot." Astrid said sheepish. "You see when you were knock out for couple days, the dragon you destroy is imprison in a magical dimension that no way out and its portal is located some where at a island far up in a sky . Its key turn into a Yellow gem called the Dragon's Eye." "The dragons bestow on us when we agree to have peace. It said that the key bring total help, I mean it help attract fish, bring nice weather and it make the place here alive .it bring Tree, plants, crops alive even dragons. Dragon depends on it now we depend on it. And that the key was hidden in their dragon's nest so they can't leave it." said Astrid. "So that why the dragon can't leave it." said Terra. "Why then we saw the island dead?" said Hiccup. "Because of that big dragon or the dragon king took it away and threatened the dragons that it never show the island food and green again and destroy the jewel. Not that but eats the dragons as well." said Astrid. "Oh â€¦ I didn't know that the dragons have to live thru this." said Hiccup, petting Toothless. "We all didn't know this until now, Hiccup." said Stoick . Soon Toothless yawned "I think someone tired." said Astrid. "Go ahead Toothless go to the house we'll be okay." said Hiccup. Toothless let his wing out and fly to the house. "but now we need to find this dragon who attack by going to .." but he was interpreted when two men was carrying a large yellow jewel, a quartz with a metal handle. "behold the Dragon's Eye." said Hiccup's Dad. Hiccup and Terra looked in awe. Until one of the men accidently drop one side of the jewel and as hit on the ground, Hiccup saw a flame of light come at him and saw â€¦the fission.

He saw his backdoor open and suddenly he was race fast to the forest until he saw a huge bolder in the middle of the forest and saw a sleek dark figure behind it and as he came fast and heard the same dragon cry and he know it was â€¦ the dragon.

The fission stop and he was still in his village and saw the two men carry the gem to its chamber. " Are you okay?" said Terra . "Did you see that?" said Hiccup. "See what?" said Terra. "All right now as I said before we must go to the library to see what that kind of creature is." Said Stoick. He went to the library with Astrid and Terra look at Hiccup in worried look but turned around and follow them. Hiccup remember the fission again and said "What are you try to show?" and left to follow the others.

The library was very on a craze .people are searching all books of type of Dragons but still find nothing. A man went to Stoick. "Any luck so far?" said Stoick. "None so far sir." Said the man. Until soon a women on the second floor rush to the stair way bars and shouted "Sirâ€¦" every one stop what they did and looked at the women even Stoick look and so did Hiccup, Astrid, and Terra looked. "We may found some thing." She continued. And so they brought a big red book that said "Ancient Dragons." in golden letters on the main table. "We haven't open this book for years." Stoick said as the book open and dust sprout out. There magnificent pictures of never seen dragons and the facts like what they eat, where they live, and if they exist. It have each kind of the dragon's scale attach to each page. Each scale have different color and shape until the finally find the page of the dragon. "The picture of the dragon has faded away." said Terra. "But the words aren't." said Hiccup. "It said "This is one the rarest, purest,and beautiful dragons. When it in danger of a dragon or human it use the beauty and smarts when it close to it prey it use its tail blade to stab its prey and fire breath on it." Whoa, that a danger dragon to you and it said more "it could fly fast like a night fury" I guess chasing it is out of the picture." said Terra. "are you sure this is the dragon who attack." said Astrid. Terra pulled something out of her pocket it is a tan black-gray scale, when she move it a dirty blue color move across the scale. "This is the scale from the dragon who attack us I find it near the house that was blast." said Terra. Stoick compared it to the one on the book. "But this is different from the one in the book, this scale â€¦ feels powerful." "But this scale have the shape and it have the say it could change into two color and the dragon is called â€¦ a Black Horned ." said Hiccup. "Hmmâ€¦ Black Horned." said Terra. "But this is strange." said Astrid looking in the book. "What is it?" said Terra. "Is said that it does have the powers "Plasma Tail Wave, Invisibility, and Purple Fireball and also have something we didn't see like Sonic Song and Shadow claw, but it doesn't say it can Teleport." said Astrid. "Ughâ€¦ with that power it could get is paws over the jewel and destroy the whole village and so we need to find and trap it now." Stoick said in frustration. "Why look for it in the center of the forest?" suggested Hiccup. All the eyes look at him. "How would you know?" said Stoick. "I think I saw it shadow head to the forest, when it teleport I saw another portal pop up on top if theforest and shadow went in it ." said Hiccup. "Hmm â€¦ alright then." said Hiccup's dad. "Men let go move to the forest." And so Stoick and a group of men left to the forest. "I hope they find it soon." said Astrid. It been over 30 minutes since the other group left. And when the three teens are playing cards all of a sudden a crowd of people rush pass them "Whoa, they look like they going to get two for one fish." said Terra. And the Ruffnut and Tuffnut run pass them. "Wait, where everybody going?" said Hiccup. The twins were talking fast and together. "What is it?" shouted Astrid. So the twins said together "They caught the dragon!".

"WHAT!" said Hiccup .but the twins already left to the crowd that going to the forest. "We got to see it." said Hiccup. "Yeah, maybe they need help." said Astrid. "Yeah let go with that." said Hiccup. So Astrid got her axe, Terra got her bow and arrows, and Hiccup â€¦ well he just got his knife. They race to toward the forest yet some group of people ran to the way to the village, screaming. And in the distant they could see dragon but the trees is blocking and there is a fog, so all they see is the dragon's dark figure. The sun is coming up so the sky is orange. And the see the dragon's figure thrashing of the ropes that tying all round it and the men holding the ropes is holding it down. But is too much force so they have to retreat. And the dragon soon rip the ropes and flew far from them. And then men ran pass them and Stoick ran saying "Its too much we have to wait till it returned.". " No we can't let it escaped." said Terra. And so she got the net rope and throw it in the air and it swinging in the air until it then â€¦. Caught the Dragon! And it fell far from there and fell in the trees and saw the tree rattled and a group of birds fly away from it. "YEAH we caught it." said Astrid and she turned to the people and shouting "Hey guys, we caught.." but saw nothing behind her "It." finished Astrid. "Come on we could still catch them." Said Terra. "But it will get away we got to find it." Said hiccup, even he want to know about it. So the group ran to the dragon landed.

They find a broken tree and saw a ground being hit it led to a boulder that been crack and led to very sharp huge thorns bushes and soon led out to up a hill and soon they go up it and saw a black creature and kneel down fast and look up again its behind a big bush its wing covered cover the body .its not moving. Terra brought out her long dagger from the attach pouch from her thigh and walk to the dragon and held in both hands and she look at it and the dragon look incent and waiting like it politely. Terra said "I sorry." And held the dagger up higher and close her eyes. Hiccup look down not want to see it and Astrid walk closer to hiccup and put her head on his shoulder. Terra look again and saw the dragon lay its head and close its eyes waiting to be kill. Terra is frustrated and lowers her dagger but she then held in one hand. And Hiccup hears a slice and opens his eyes and look in a sudden way but also the dragon open is eyes sudden too and look at it sides.
